My dear Son

I rec'd letters from Mamma, Joe & Ed. at 3 P.M. yesterday and those of you, Martha and Goodwin. I found in my box at 5 P.M. - That of Goodwin. I immediately re-mailed to you at Redding. Capt Kohl was in Sat. aft. while I was at the Dentist's - and Warner told me that he was very anxious for me to go down and stay over Sunday on the train - but could not wait it so late as my dentist app. was 5 P.M. I have to see him again today. I am much freer from pain and feel better in every way and told him today that I wanted to be free to go up country to-morrow. I don't know exactly what he is driving at; only he says he wants to give me permanent rel. if without drilling.

I saw Mr. Whitworth and read to him your letter - which he discussed with great interest; expressing confidence in Mr. Taylor's opinions and, as at present advised, thinks the plan for going right on to patent, a good one - doing the work on the Extension - not as assessment work but as a continuation of a specific plan upon which we have been working all the way along.

In connection with the ownership of the buildings he suggested that the seed conveying the rail road title to the land, to me, be sub-
